IRS.gov

The IRS launched a new section on its website to highlight higher education tax breaks and key changes made by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

To find the details, go to www.irs.gov and you will see the hyperlink in the middle of the homepage.

Information includes a special section on Code Sec. 529 College Education plans, information regarding the expansion of Code Sec. 529 plans to cover the purchase of computer equipment, and the modification of the Hope and American Opportunity Tax Credit.

For more information regarding planning opportunities for individuals, college savings plans, and tax credits, contact Tax Partner Arnie Haskell at (631) 719-3390, AHaskell@hrrllp.com.

Donating to Haiti?

If you are donating money to help Haiti after the devastating earthquake there, you will be able to get a quicker tax benefit by claiming the deduction on your 2009 federal tax return.

The special provision allows you to claim the deduction on 2009 (or 2010) taxes, providing you make the donation before March 1, 2010. For more information, visit www.irs.gov.
