

FIRM RESPONSIBILITIES

Mr. Bracco is a Partner in the Business Fraud and Investigative Services division of the firm's Litigation and Valuation Consulting group.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

As a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) with a certification in Financial Forensics (CFF), Mr. Bracco has more than 10 years of experience providing litigation support services including forensic accounting in both Federal and State proceedings.

Mr. Bracco conducts business fraud investigations, assisting victims in civil litigation and criminal prosecution as well as asset recovery and prevention of future fraud.

He has assisted attorneys in calculations of economic damages for fraud cases, contract disputes and insurance settlements. He also has assisted in the resolution of shareholder and partner disputes, and has helped businesses improve their internal controls and reduce their risk of fraud.

Mr. Bracco also has diverse experience providing audit, tax and management advisory services to a wide variety of industry groups including hedge funds, broker dealers, investment advisers, construction, and not-for-profit organizations.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. Bracco is a member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. He also is a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the New York State Society of CPAs.

In addition he has lectured on topics including fraud prevention and detection, and forensic accounting techniques.

EDUCATION

Mr. Bracco earned a B.S. degree in accounting from St. John's University.

ANTHONY M. BRACCO,
CPA/CFF, CFE

(212) 697-6900
ABracco@hrrllp.com

"Fraud is the invisible enemy, attacking businesses and undermining best efforts."

At Holtz Rubenstein Reminick, we root out the potential, causes, and sources of fraud and give you solutions to make sure it doesn't happen again."
