

FIRM RESPONSIBILITIES

Ms. Camp is partner in charge of the quality control department at Holtz Rubenstein Reminick LLP. She has the overall responsibility for the development of firm policies and procedures for compliance with professional standards.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Formerly the Audit Partner in Charge of Quality Control (“QC”) Systems for the New England offices of the twelfth largest CPA firm in the country, Ms. Camp brings over 30 years of experience in accounting, auditing, professional ethics and quality control for both public and private company reporting.

Aside from designing and implementing QC procedures and preparing written QC manuals, she has also served as engagement partner for privately-held and publicly traded clients in the manufacturing, healthcare, retail, and technology industries.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Ms. Camp is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and sits on one of its senior technical standard-setting committees. She also is a member of the Massachusetts Society of CPAs, where she was previously a board member and chair of its public relations committee.

In addition, she was treasurer of the YWCA of Central Massachusetts and the NewRep Theater Company, as well as past president of the Central Massachusetts Chamber of Commerce.

She is a licensed CPA in Texas and Massachusetts. Her application for reciprocal license in New York is pending.

EDUCATION

Ms. Camp earned her Bachelor of Business Administration degree (summa cum laude) and her Masters in Professional Accountancy from the University of Texas at Arlington.

CASSANDRA A. CAMP, CPA

(631) 719-3380
CCamp@hrrllp.com

“We absolutely support adhering to the highest professional standards from the beginning of every client relationship and engagement.”

You can take comfort in knowing that HRR professionals are dedicated to solving client problems with the highest level of integrity.”
