

FIRM RESPONSIBILITIES

Mr. Geschwind is partner in charge of the medical practice group at Holtz Rubenstein Reminick LLP.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

He has extensive experience in accounting, auditing, tax and business advisory services for both public and privately held companies in a variety of industries including healthcare, printing and publishing, supermarkets, oil distribution, contractors, manufacturers, lumber mills, retail pharmacies, mail order, and restaurants.

Prior to joining Holtz Rubenstein Reminick, Mr. Geschwind was the managing partner of Geschwind Davidson & Co. on Long Island. He is a licensed CPA in New York.

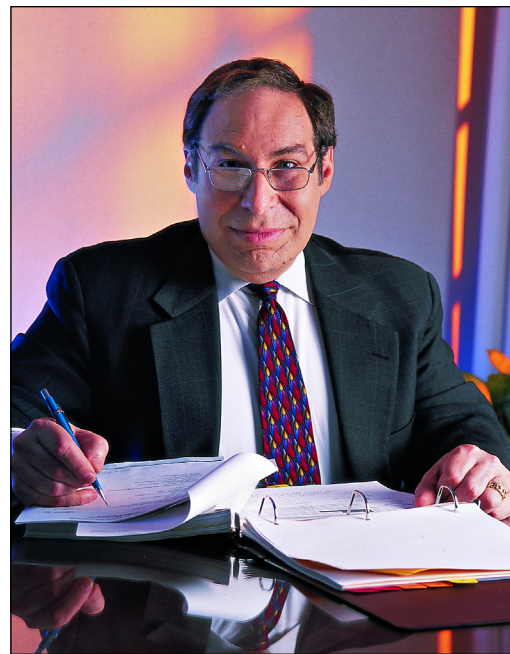

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. Geschwind is on the board of the Huntington Township Chamber of Commerce, where he serves on its Finance and Small Business Advisory Committees. In addition, he is past president of Congregation Beth-El in Massapequa, NY.

He also is a frequent lecturer on various financial matters for small businesses and wealth transition planning.

EDUCATION

Mr. Geschwind earned a B.S. degree in accounting from State University of New York at Albany.

NEIL GESCHWIND, CPA

(631) 719-3310

NGeschwind@hrrllp.com

"The key to success in today's business world is to be able to adjust to your environment."

You must understand your product or service, listen to your customers, know your competition, surround yourself with knowledgeable advisers, and be nimble enough to change directions."
