

FIRM RESPONSIBILITIES

Ellen Labita is a partner in the Not-For-Profit division of Holtz Rubenstein Reminick LLP.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

With over 20 years of experience in public accounting, including multi-national, national and regional firm experience, Ms. Labita has served both the not-for-profit and for-profit sectors. She now concentrates exclusively on providing audit, tax, and consulting services for not-for-profit organizations, including OMB Circular A-133 and state reporting requirements. Her not-for-profit clients include foundations, educational institutions, social service agencies, health and welfare, membership and religious organizations.

Ms. Labita also is a frequent lecturer, providing training seminars for industry groups and clients, and is a regular contributor to New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA) seminars.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Ms. Labita is president of Girls Inc. of Long Island and treasurer of the Long Island Women's Agenda. She is on the board of Suffolk Community Council and the finance committee for North Shore Child and Family Guidance. She also serves on fundraising committees for the American Heart Association, Center for Developmental Disabilities, Long Island Fund for Women and Girls, Mental Health Association of Nassau County, Family and Children's Association, and Options for Community Living. She also is a member of the Molloy College Business Advisory Council.

In addition, Ms. Labita is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the NYSSCPA, where she serves on the Not-for-Profit Organizations committee.

Ms. Labita was chosen among the Top 50 Most Influential Women in Business, Class of 2009, from Long Island Business News and is the recipient of the "Making a Difference for Women" award from Soroptimist International of Nassau County.

EDUCATION

Ms. Labita received a B.B.A. degree, summa cum laude, from Adelphi University.

ELLEN LABITA, CPA

(631) 719-3232

ELabita@hrrllp.com

"We provide clients with big firm quality and small firm attention."

Working exclusively with not-for-profits allows me to combine my for-profit experience with my not-for-profit expertise to help clients address the business issues they face in today's challenging environment."
