

FIRM RESPONSIBILITIES

Mr. Waldman is partner in charge of commercial audit practice development at Holtz Rubenstein Reminick LLP.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Mr. Waldman began his career in the Long Island office of KPMG, where he was the partner in charge of the audit practice and became Managing Partner in 1994. He has worked with publicly- and privately-held manufacturing and distribution companies, technology firms, as well as service and hospitality organizations.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. Waldman has made significant contributions to the community with his membership in organizations including the Long Island United Way; the Long Island Association (LIA), where he serves as Treasurer; the Long Island Philharmonic; the Jewish National Fund; and the Nassau County chapter of the New York State Society of CPAs.

He also has devoted time and energy to philanthropic organizations including the American Heart Association, the National Center for Disability Services, Long Island Children's Museum, Family Service Association, American Jewish Committee, and Our Lady of Consolation Geriatric Care Center.

Education is a priority to Mr. Waldman. He has served on the Board of Education of the East Williston Union Free School District and as treasurer of the Nassau/Suffolk School Boards Association. He currently is chairman of the LIA Education Committee. An active alumnus of Hofstra University, he serves on the Alumni Association of the Frank G. Zarb School of Business and its Dean's Council. He is an Associate Adjunct Professor of Accounting at Hofstra and is on the Advisory Board of the Long Island University School of Professional Accountancy.

His commitment to his community has resulted in numerous awards and citations from the organizations with which he has been involved.

EDUCATION

Mr. Waldman earned Master of Business Administration and Bachelor of Science degrees from Hofstra University.

LAWRENCE J. WALDMAN,
CPA

(631) 752-7400 Ext. 346
LWaldman@hrrllp.com

"The traditional role of an accountant is to be the business advisor.

We believe to do this you must fully understand the client's business and be able to provide not just suggestions, but solutions!"
